This edition is dedicated in loving memory of our grandparents, kedoshim who lived their lives and died al Kiddush Hashem. We were not privileged to know them, but their influence and inspiration still shape our lives.

Aleksander and Sima Leah Kleinman (Weiss) ז"ל הי"ד ר' אלכסנדר ב"ר צבי אריה ז"ל הי"ד מרת סימא לאה בת ר' אברהם ע"ה הי"ד

He was born in what was then Russian Carpathia. Livelihood was difficult. Six days a week were a struggle, but Shabbos was a day of bliss, in shul, beis medrash, and at the Shabbos table. The heartfelt zemiros and divrei Torah at the Shabbos tisch made the weekday hardship disappear.

She worked hard to help support the family, but Yiddishkeit was never a burden. It was an honor and a joy. She was wise and talented. Her neighbors in Brod and the surrounding area came to her for practical insight, chizuk, and medical advice.

Theirs was a home where shemiras halashon and dikduk b'mitzvos were paramount, and where there was one priority: that their sons must have the finest possible yeshivah education, and that their daughter be a true bas Yisrael.

Rabbi Elimelech and Yita Brocha Fischman ז''ל הי"ד הרב אלימלך ב"ר ישראל ז''ל הי"ד מרת יוטא ברכה בת ר' אברהם ע"ה הי"ד

He was born near Marmarosh-Sighet. A talmid of the Kedushas Yom Tov and the Arugas Habosem, he won early recognition as an exceptional talmid chacham. He was a brave yarei Shamayim who was freed from army service because he refused to cut his beard and payos, despite being threatened with prison — and even a bullet.

She descended from a family of distinguished rabbis, among them Rav Chaim Yoseph Gottlieb, the Stropkover Rav מצ"ל, a descendant of the Sh'lah Hakadosh.

He was a chavrusa and respected colleague of the future Satmar Rav, R' Yoel זצ"ל. Then he became gabbai to the legendary chassidic master, R' Shayaleh Keresztirer מון and his successors. Our zaide wrote many sefarim, including Lechem Abirim al haTorah. He was a renowned baal tefillah, and composer of soul-stirring niggunim. People traveled from afar to hear his Yom Tov davening.

She stood proudly by his side to keep a home known for its vibrant spirit of Yiddishkeit, where they raised a houseful of children who distinguished themselves for their erudition and askanus.

🥦 Publisher's Preface to this Preview Edition

It is with great pleasure that MESORAH HERITAGE FOUNDATION presents this preview booklet, which showcases a siman (chapter) from an upcoming major new ArtScroll project: the five-volume KLEINMAN EDITION of the KITZUR SHULCHAN ARUCH — CODE OF JEWISH LAW. This classic work of halachah was written by Rabbi Shlomo Ganzfried in 1864.

The author's goal was to provide a concise, clear guide that covers virtually the complete spectrum of Jewish law. This is especially important — even vital — for the typical school, shul, and household. The "Kitzur" provides a good, general knowledge of the corpus of Halachah. That is why it has been part of the standard curriculum of yeshivos and day schools for generations. As an important reference guide in the home, the Kitzur is especially important when a halachic question arises and people need to know quickly what to do. It can be every family's first reference and, as many leading rabbis have said, it lets people understand when to ask and how to ask if they have to consult a halachic authority.

The popularity of the Kitzur in Jewish communities around the world proves that Rabbi Ganzfried's work filled a major need. The Kitzur was reprinted twenty times in the author's lifetime, and many more times since then. It has been universally embraced by all segments of Ashkenazic Jewry, and it has achieved the unusual distinction of winning the respect of scholar and layman alike. In fact, the greatness of the Kitzur is perhaps appreciated most by halachic experts, because they can best see how the author was able to distill complex subjects into clear and deceptively simple language.

This new edition of the Kitzur Shulchan Aruch has been carefully designed to combine the best of the old and the new. For the text, we use the Lemberg edition of 1884 — the last edition of the Kitzur that was annotated and approved by the author himself, and which includes his own corrections to earlier editions. We are grateful to the MUNK FAMILY of Bnei Brak for lending us their rare copy of that edition לעילוי נשמת הרב ר׳ אליקים ישראל הכהן מונק זצ״ל.

For ease of reading, we present a fully vowelized text of the Kitzur. Beneath the Hebrew text, this edition provides a phrase-by-phrase translation and elucidation, following the much-admired style that is familiar to anyone who has used a volume of ArtScroll's Schottenstein Edition of the Talmud, or the Rashi or Ramban commentaries on the Torah. Also included are notes that provide necessary explanations. Another very important feature is that each topic is introduced with background information, so that the reader can have a clear understanding of the relevant laws.

We have added an important new feature, which will make this work much more useful to its readership: we include relevant rulings from the Mishnah Berurah and from Rabbi Moshe Feinstein, where they differ from the Kitzur.

The entire edition is dedicated by ELLY AND BROCHIE KLEINMAN, dear friends of ArtScroll/Mesorah and benefactors of a host of worthy causes, including our Daily Dose of Torah — Limud Yomi. We are privileged by their friendship and their judgment that our work is worthy of their generous support.

This preview booklet contains Siman 18, which discusses the laws of Shemoneh Esrei. Since it deals with a subject that is part of everyone's daily life, it provides the public with not only a very useful guide, but also a basis to judge the quality of this project. We are confident that the stature of the talmidei chachamim who are producing the work will be unmistakably evident on every page. It also contains the Table of Contents for the full first volume of the edition, which will cover Simanim 1-34, and which will be released later this summer.

The full volume will also contain appendices that provide more detailed explanations of the measurements and shiurim used by the Kitzur. Also included will be the original editorial glosses written by the author himself, which appeared in his 1884 edition.

We hope that this booklet will succeed in providing an exciting first look at a project that we hope will be of great value to the Jewish public, and find a place in every Jewish home, school, library, and shul.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

 $\mathbf{\Lambda}$ e are deeply grateful to the many editors, writers, and graphics experts who have created this Preview Edition, and are working on the soon-to-be-published first volume of the ArtScroll's five-volume KLEINMAN EDITION of the KITZUR SHULCHAN ARUCH — CODE OF JEWISH LAW.

RABBI ELIYAHU MEIR KLUGMAN, an American-born Rosh Yeshivah now living in Jerusalem, is the General Editor of this project who reviews the work for halachic accuracy; RABBI YOSAIF ASHER WEISS, Rosh Yeshivas Ohr HaDaas, Staten Island, serves as the Editorial Director, in addition to serving as the General Editor of the Kleinman Edition of the Daily Dose of Torah — Limud Yomi series, and an editor of the Schottenstein Editions of Talmud Bayli and Yerushalmi, RABBI CHAIM MALINOWITZ reviews and comments upon the entire manuscript, as he does for ArtScroll's Schottenstein Editions of Talmud Bavli and Yerushalmi. This preview chapter of the Kitzur was written and edited by RABBI MORDECHAI SONNENSCHEIN. These four distinguished scholars are to be commended for producing a work of halachic, literary, and pedagogic excellence.

We are grateful also to the other outstanding Torah scholars contributing their talents to this project, who are in the closing stages of writing and editing the entire volume from which this chapter is taken: RABBI DOVID ARYEH KAUFMAN, RABBI SHMUEL KIRZNER, RABBI ELI LEFKOWITZ; RABBI YEHUDA WISCHNITZER, a new member of our editorial team who is working on volume two; and RABBI MOSHE YEHUDA GLUCK, who is composing a comprehensive index. RABBI MOSHE ROSENBLUM and RABBI AVROHOM YITZCHOK DEUTSCH reviewed and corrected the nikkud.

MRS. AHUVA WEISS provided skilled literary editing; MRS. CHUMIE LIPSCHITZ paginated with her customary typographic skill; MRS. TZIPORAH FRANKEL of Jerusalem provided editorial expertise, SURY REINHOLD and DEVOIRY WEISBLUM typed and corrected the manuscript; and MRS. MINDY STERN proofread and made many important suggestions.

Our dear friend and colleague RABBI SHEAH BRANDER has set the standard for graphics beauty for over thirty tears. The clarity of the page design of this work is further testament to his expertise and vision. ELI KROEN designed the sculpted embossed cover with his customary imagination and good taste.

The stellar staff members mentioned above, as well as the publishers, are grateful to the people who coordinate the production of, and facilitate the communication between, staff members on two continents. SHMUEL BLITZ, director of our Jerusalem office, is an indispensable colleague who, as per the popular saying, uncomplicates problems; AVROHOM BIDERMAN and MENDY HERZBERG oversee the often complex task of keeping the workflow smooth and efficient.

We are profoundly grateful to all the staff members who enable ArtScroll/Mesorah to carry out its mission of maintaining the highest possible standard of quality in bringing Torah classics to the English-speaking public with clarity and accuracy.

We express our appreciation to the trustees and committee members of the MESORAH HERITAGE FOUNDATION, whose names are listed earlier. They are all accomplished, busy men who contribute time and expertise to the cause of Torah literacy.

Finally, אחרון אחרון חביב, we thank Hashem Yisbarach for the indescribable privilege of bringing His Word to His people. May He bless all those who take part in this work with good health and the ability to continue to serve Him.

עַר שְּלִּישׁ — The time for the recitation of Shemoneh Esrei extends עַר שְׁלִּישׁ — it is forbidden to — until a third of the day has passed; ווֹתֶר יוֹתֵר — it is forbidden to delay this Prayer any later. וּמְבֶּל־מְקוֹם — Nevertheless, בְּרִיעֲבֵּר אִם עָבֵר וְהָתְאָחֵר — after the fact, if one violated this halachah and delayed the Prayer until later than a third of the day, אֲפִילוּ בְּמֵוִיד — even if he did so deliberately, יָבוּל לְהַתְּפֵּלֵל עַר — he can still recite the Shacharis Prayer until midday. [6] אַף-עַל-בִּי שֵּאֵין לוֹ — he can still recite the Shacharis Prayer until midday.

^{1.} The centerpiece of the morning prayers is the Shemoneh Esrei; all other parts of the morning prayer service revolve around this recitation. The Shemoneh Esrei is therefore referred to here as simply הָּפִלָּה, the Prayer.

^{2.} See above, 17:1 note 10.

^{3.} This refers either to the very first rays of dawn that appear on the eastern horizon, or to the spread of light across the entire eastern horizon, which occurs a bit later; see above, 17:1 and Appendix A.

^{4.} This refers only to his obligation regarding the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer. However, one should not recite the Shema, nor don tefillin, before the time of mi'she'yakir, which occurs after the alos ha'shachar [see above, 17:1] (Mishnah Berurah 89:4).

^{5.} Until after four "seasonal hours" have passed from the beginning of the day; see above, 17:1, and Appendix A.

^{6.} See Appendix A. Mishnah Berurah (89:6) writes that in a case where a person deliberately שַּׁכָר כִּתִפְּלָה בִּוֹמַנָּה, שַׂכַר תִּפְלָה מִיהוּ אִיכָּא. עַבַר בִּמֵוִיד עַד חֲצוֹת הַיּוֹם ולא התפַלל, אין לו עוד תַשְלוּמִין, וְעַלֵּיו נֵאָמֵר (קהלת א, טו): "מְעַנַת לא יוּכַל לתקן״, ואם שַנג או נאַנס יבאַר בִּסִימַן כ״א.

ב. בִּשַּׁמַגִּיעַ לִי׳תִּהָלוֹת לָאֵל עֵלִיוֹן׳׳, יַעֲמוֹד וָנָבִין אֵת־עַצְמוֹ לִתְפָלַת שְׁמוֹנֵה עשרה, ויָסִיר בִּיחוֹ וִנִיעוֹ, וְכָל דָּכָר הַמְבַלְבֵּל אֵת מַחַשַּבתוֹ, וְיֵלֵךְ שָׁלשׁ פִּסִיעוֹת לַאַחוֹרָיוֹ, וִיאֹמֵר ״תִּהְלּוֹת לָאֵל עֵלִיוֹן״ וֹבוֹ׳ עַד ״גָאַל יִשְּׂרָאֵל״, וֹאָז יַחַזוֹר לְפָנָיוֹ שַׁלשׁ פּסִיעות, דֶּרֶךְ קֵירוֹב וָהַגַּשָׁה לַמֶּלֶךְ. לֹא יַפְסִיק בִּין גַּאַל יִשְׁרָאֵל לְשְׁמוֹנֵה־ עשרה, אַפִּילוּ לִקָּדִישׁ וֹקִדוּשַׁה וֹיִיבָּרְכוּיִי, מִפְּנֵי שַצַּרִיךְ לְהַסְמִיךְ גִּאוּלֶה לִתִפְּלֶה. וְטוֹב

שַּבֶּר בִּתִפְּלָה בִּוְמַנָּה — In this case, although he does not receive a Heavenly reward for a Prayer recited in the proper time, שַבר תִפּלָה מיהוּ אִיכָּא — he does, however, receive some reward for his Prayer.

עבר במויד ער חצות היום ולא התפַּלֵל — If he deliberately did not pray until after midday, אין לו עור הַשלומין — he has no way of making up this Prayer; ועַלִיו נָאָמֵר — and regarding this violation it is stated (Koheles 1:15): יימְעָוָת לֹא יובַל לֹתְקֹן׳׳ — A twisted thing cannot be made straight. וְאִם שָׁנֵג אוֹ נָאֲנֵס — However, if he missed the time of Prayer due to a mistake or unavoidable circumstance, יבוֹאֵר בְּסִימָן ב׳׳א — then he can recite a compensatory Prayer, as will be explained below, in Siman 21.

אָב עַלִּיוּןי׳ §2 – When one reaches the words Tehillos l'El Elyon, Praises to the Supreme God, וועמור וְיָבִין אֶת־עַצְמוּ לֹתְפַלַת שִמוּנָה ששרה he should stand and ready himself for the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer: ביחו וניעו — He should clear his nose and throat from extraneous phleam and saliva, בתו מחשבתו — and remove anything else that would disturb his concentration. וֵיֵלֶרְ שֵׁלֹשׁ פְּסִיעוֹת לַאֲחוֹרֵיו — He should then take three steps back, יובוי על עליוןיי ובוי — and recite from Tehillos l'El Elyon etc. עַד ייגָאַל — עד ייגָאַל ישראליי — until the conclusion of the blessing with the words Ga'al Yisrael, Who redeemed Israel. ואַז יַחֲװר לְפַנֵיו שָׁלשׁ פְּסִיעוֹת — He should then return to his place by taking three steps forward בַּרֶךְ קֵירוּב וְהַגָּשָה לַמֵּלֵךְ — in the manner of one who draws near to and approaches a king. לא יַפְּסִיק בֵּין ייגָאַל יִשְרָאֵלי׳ לְשַׁמוֹנֶה־עֲשֶׁרֶה — One may not interrupt between the words Ga'al Yisrael and the beginning of Shemoneh ייברנויי וקרושה וייברנויי – even to respond to Kaddish, Kedushah, or Borchu, מפּנֵי שֵׁצַרִיךְ לְהַסְמִיךְ גָּאוּלָה לְתִפְלָה — because one must recite the blessing of Redemption immediately prior to beginning the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer. [8] delayed praying until after a third of the day has passed, there are authorities who hold that he can no longer pray Shacharis. He recommends that the person should therefore pray, but with the condition that if the halachah follows those authorities, then his prayer is offered as a תַּבְלַת נְדַבָּה, voluntary prayer. (See Shulchan Aruch, Siman 107 for the laws and parameters of תְּפַלַת נְדָכָה; see also Siman 21.)

^{7.} The closing sentence of the Ezras Avoseinu paragraph in the Blessing of Redemption following the Shema.

^{8.} For this reason, the halachah with regard to interruption is even more stringent at this point in the prayers than in "the middle of a perek"; see above, 16:3. Mishnah Berurah (111:2) adds that one may not even wait silently at this point for more than the time of k'dei dibbur (the time it takes for a disciple to greet his teacher; see Appendix A). According to some authorities, on Shabbos one may respond to Kaddish, Kedushah, or Borchu even between Ga'al Yisrael and Shemoneh Esrei: see Mishnah Berurah 66:50

שִׁיְצַמְצֵם לִגְמוֹר בִּרְכֵּת ׳׳נָאַל יִשְׂרָאֵל׳׳ עם הַשְׁלִיחַ־צִבּוּר בְּשָׁוֶה, כִּי אִם יִגְמוֹר הוּא הְחַלָּה וְאַחַר־כָּךְ הַשְּׁלִיחַ־צִבּוּר, יֵשׁ סָפֵּק אִם יַצְנֶה אָמֵן עַל בִּרְכַת הַשְּׁלִיחַ־צִבּוּר אוֹ לא, אֲכָל בְּשֶׁהוּא גַּם־כֵּן גּוֹמֵר אֶת הַבְּרָכָה, וַדֵּאי אִין צָרִיךְ לַעְנוֹת אָמֵן, דְאֵין עוֹנִין אָמֵן עַל בִּרְכַּת עַצְמוֹ [וְעַיֵּין לְעֵיל סִימָן ו סָעִיף יא]. וּבְמַעֲרִיב, כֵּיוָן שֶׁאֵין הַבְּרָכָה שֶׁלֹפְנֵי הַשְׁמוֹנֶה־עְשְׁרַה מְסַיֶּימֶת בְּנָאַל יִשְׂרָאֵל, מוֹתָּר לְהַפְּסִיק בְּמוֹ בִּשְׁאָר מָקוֹם בֵּין כֶּרֶק לפרק. קוֹרם השׁמוֹנה־עשֹׁרה אוֹמר הפּסוּק (תהלים נא, יו) ׳׳אדני שׁפתי תּפּתח׳׳ וגו׳,

עיינאָעל יִשְרָאֵליי בּרְבַּת יינָאָל יִשְרָאֵליי — It is a good practice to synchronize one's conclusion of the blessing of Ga'al Yisrael עם הַשְּלִּיחַ־צָּבּוּר בְּשָׁוֶה — so that it coincides with that of the chazzan, הְּלָּה — because if a person concludes his own recitation of the blessing first — because if a person afterward, the chazzan concludes his, שַׁ מֶּבֶּן — there is a halachic doubt אם יַשָּׁנְהַ — whether he should respond with Amen to the blessing of the chazzan or not. — אָבֶל בְּשָׁהוּא גַּם־בֵּן גּוֹמֵר אַת הַבְּרֶכָה — However, if he is also concluding the blessing at the same time, אַבָּל בְּשָׁהוּא גַּם־בֵּן גּוֹמֵר אָת הַבְּרֶכָה — for one does not respond with Amen to one's own blessing [בְּאִי לְּעֵיל סִימָן וּ סָעִיף יא] — see above, 6:11]. [10]

The Shemoneh Esrei of the evening (Maariv) prayer is also preceded by the recitation of Shema and its accompanying blessings. One of these blessings, although not the last, is the blessing of Redemption, Ga'al Yisrael. While it is also important not to interrupt between the blessing of Redemption and the Shemoneh Esrei of the Maariv prayer, [11] the halachah is not identical to that of Shacharis:

בּינְן שָּאֵין הַבְּרָכָה שֶּלְּבְּנֵי הַשְּׁמוֹנֶה־עֶשְהֵה — With regard to the Maariv prayer, בּינְן שָּאֵין הַבְּרָכָה שֶּלְבְּנֵי הַשְּׁמוֹנֶה־עֶשְהֵה — since the blessing that immediately precedes Shemoneh Esrei does not conclude with the words Ga'al Yisrael, הַבְּסִיק — it is permitted to interrupt after Ga'al Yisrael, before beginning Shemoneh Esrei, בְּמוֹ בַּשְּאָר מָקוֹם בֵּין פֶּרֶך — like at any other point between sections of the blessings accompanying the Shema. [12]

קוֹדֶם הַשְּׁמוֹנֶה־עֶּשְׂרֵה — Before beginning the first blessing of the Shemoneh Esrei, אוֹמֵר הַפְּסוּק ייִאֲדְנָי שְׁפָּתִי תִּפְתָּחי׳ וגוי — one recites the verse (Tehillim 51:17): Adonoy sefosai tiftach, My Lord, open my lips etc. that my mouth may declare Your praise.

and 111:9; and Beur Halachah to 111:1 ב״ה וטוב להחמיר.

^{9.} According to some authorities, one may not recite Amen, as the response constitutes an interruption between the individual's recitation of Ga'al Yisrael and Shemoneh Esrei. Others maintain that Amen is considered part of the blessing itself, and therefore it does not constitute an interruption (see Shulchan Aruch 111:1 and Mishnah Berurah ibid. 5).

^{10.} Another way to avoid this situation of doubt is to begin one's recitation of Shemoneh Esrei (with the words אָבְּיִי שְּפָתִי הִפְּתָּח slightly before the chazzan's conclusion of Ga'al Yisrael. Since at the point that he hears the blessing he is already in the middle of Shemoneh Esrei, he certainly may not respond Amen to the chazzan (Mishnah Berurah 66:35).

^{11.} The intermediate blessing of הַשְׁכִּיבֵנוּ, Lay us down (as well as that of יִרְאוֹ עֵינְינוּ, May our eyes see, where it is customary to recite it), is not considered an interruption between the blessing of Redemption and the Shemoneh Esrei; see Berachos 4b, 9b; Mishnah Berurah 236:6.

וְאֵינוֹ הֶפְּסֵק, בִּי הוּא שַׁיָּיךְ לְהַתְּפִלָּה. אֲבָל הַפָּסוּק (דברים לב, ג) ׳׳בִּי שֵׁם ה׳ אֶקְרָא׳׳ וגוֹמֵר לא יאמַר, בִּי אָם בִּמוֹסֶף וּבִמִנְחָה יאמִרוֹ, קוֹדֵם ׳׳אֵדנַי שְׁפַתֵּי תִּפִתַּח׳׳.

ג. הַמִּתְפַּלֵל צָרִיךְ שָׁיֵּדַע, שֶׁהַשְּׁכִינָה בְּנֶגְדּוֹ, כְּמוֹ שֻׁנֶּאֱמֵר (איכה ב, יט): ׳׳שִׁפְכִי כַמַּיִם לְבֵּךְ נַבַח פְּנֵי אֲדֹנִי׳׳. וְיָעִיר הַכַּנָּנָה וְיָסִיר כָּל הַמַּחֲשָׁבוֹת הַטּוֹרְדוֹת אוֹתוֹ, עֵד שְׁתִּשְׁאֵר מַחֲשַׁבְתוֹ וְכַנָּוֹנָתוֹ וַכָּה בִּתְפִּלֶּתוֹ, וְיַחְשׁוֹב כִּי אִלּוֹ הָיָה מְדַבֵּר לִפְנֵי מֶלֶךְ בָּשֶׁר נָדָם, בְּנַדֵּאי הָיָה מְסַדֵּר דְּבָרָיו וּמְכַנֵּיוֹ בְּהֶם יָפֶה, לְבַל יִבְּשׁל, קַל וָחוֹמֶר לִפְנֵי מֶלֶךְ מַלְּבִי הַמְּלְבִי הַמְּלָכִים הַמְּדוֹשׁ בָּרוֹךְ הוֹא, שֶׁצָּרִיךְ לְּכַנִּיוֹ לְפָנָיוֹ אֵת מַחֲשַׁבְתוֹ, כִּי לְפָנָיוֹ מִקְבִּרְ שְׁמוֹ דִּבּוּר, וְכָל הַמַּחֲשָׁבוֹת הוּא חוֹכֵר. וְקוֹדֶם הַתְּפְּלָה יַחְשׁוֹב מִרְבְּרָךְ שְׁמוֹ הִבְּבִּרְ שְׁמוֹ וְשִׁפְלוֹת הָאָדֶם, וְיָסִיר כָּל תַעֲנוֹנִי אָדָם מִלְּבוֹ. מִלְבוֹ.

רְאָנוּ הֶפְּמֵּק — This verse does not constitute an interruption between the blessing of Redemption and Shemoneh Esrei, בּי הוא שַּיִיךְ לְהַתְּפֶלָה — since it is connected to the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer. וגומר — thowever, the verse (Devarim 32:3): Ki Shem Hashem ekra, When I call out the Name of Hashem etc., ascribe greatness to our God, לא יאמר — he should not recite, since it is not part of the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer וואן and would constitute an interruption. בי אם בְּמִינְּיף וּבְמִינְף שֹּׁפְתִי וּאָדֹנִי שְׁפָּתִי הַפְּתָּוּ הַשְּׁבּת יאַרוּ, קוֹנֶים "אָרנִי שְׁפָּתִי הַפְּתָּוּ הַשְּׁבּת יאַרוּ, קוֹנֶים "אָרנִי שְׁפָּתִי הַפְּתָּוּ הַבּיִנִי אוֹ the recite it — but it should be said before the verse of Adonoy sefosai tiftach.

"Therefore, only before the verse of Adonoy sefosai tiftach."

אָהַשְּבִינָה — One who is praying Shemoneh Esrei must be aware שָהַשְּבִינָה that the Divine Presence is facing him, בְּנֵגִּדוּ — as the verse states (Eichah 2:19): יישפכי כמים לבר נכח פני אדנייי — Pour out your heart like water in the Presence of the Lord. וַיָעִיר הַבּוֹנֵה — He should arouse his concentration ער – and remove from his mind any thoughts that disturb him, ער until his thoughts and his concentration become שַּתְּשָּאֵר מַחֲשַׁבְתוּ וְבַנְוּנָתוּ זַבָּה בְּתִפְּלָתוּ clearly focused on his Prayer. וַיְחְשׁוֹב — And he should consider בּוַבָּשׁר וָדָם — that if he were speaking to a king of flesh and blood בְּנַבְּאי הָיָה מִסֶבֶּר — that if he were speaking to a king of flesh and blood he would surely organize his words beforehand, דְּבָרֵיו — he would surely organize his words beforehand, ומִבוֵין בָּהֶם יָפֶה, לְבַל יִבָּשֵׁל and concentrate well while speaking so that he does not stumble; קל נְחוֹמֶר לִפְנֵי מֶלֶךְ בון הוא ברוך הוא ברוך הוא — all the more so, when speaking before the King of kings, the Holy One, Blessed is He, שֶׁצֶרִיךְ לְבַנֵּיִן לְפָנָיו אֶת מְחֲשַׁבְתוּ — he must concentrate his thoughts when praying before Him! בי לפניו יתברך שמו — For before Hashem, may His Name be blessed, הַמַחֲשָׁבָה בְּמוֹ דִיבוּר — any thoughts that a person has are as revealed as the spoken word, ובל הַמַּחַשְבות הוא חוקר — and He examines all of man's thoughts. התפלה — Before prayer יחשוב מרוממות האל יתברך שמו — he should think of the exaltedness of God, may His Name be blessed, וַשְּפַלוּת הַאָדָם — and of the lowliness יוָסִיר בָּל תַעֵנוּגֵי אָדָם מלבו — and he should remove from his mind any thoughts of pleasures in which Man engages.

^{13.} Since the Sages instituted its recitation at this point, it is considered a part of the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer (Mishnah Berurah 111:1, from Berachos 4b).

^{15.} It cannot be recited after הַּמְּתָּי תְּפְתָּי הְנָי שְׁבָּתִי הִפְּתָּוּ since after reciting this verse one is considered to have begun the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer (Mishnah Berurah 111:1).

^{14.} Its recitation is only customary; see Tur 111.

- אַבְּלֵּבוֹ שְּבְּבֵּלֵּבוֹ One who is praying Shemoneh Esrei בִּירוּ שְּבְּבֵּין בְּלָבוֹ the meaning of the words that he utters from his mouth, שְּבָּאָמֵר as the verse states (Tehillim 10:17): "תָּבִין לַבָּם, Direct their heart; let Your ear be attentive. בְּקְשִׁיב אָזְנֶּךְ בַּקְשִׁיב אָזְנֶּךְ Many Siddurim have been printed with a German translation of the words of the prayers וְלְבוֹל בָּל אָדֶם לְלְמוֹד and every person can learn the meaning of the words of the prayers וְלְבִבוֹן מַה לֶּלְמוֹד and understand what he is saying when he prays. [18] and understand what he is saying when he prays. [18] If one cannot concentrate on the meaning of the words, בְּבְיִין מֵּה שְׁבִּרוֹש בִּשְׁעֵת הַתְּפַלֵּל then he should at least think while praying בְּבָרִים הַמִּבְנִיעִים אֶת הַלָּב thoughts that subdue the heart בְּשְׁעֵת הַתְּפַלָּת and that direct his heart to his Father in Heaven. וְלָבְּתִין עֵר שֻׁתִּרְבַּשֵּל and that direct his heart to his Father in Heaven. וְלַמְתִּין עֵר שֻׁתִּרְבַּשֵּל he should fall silent, i.e., stop praying, an irrelevant thought comes to him, ה he should fall silent, i.e., stop praying, and wait until the thought ceases to disturb him.
- אָצֶל זָה אַצֶל זָה When praying Shemoneh Esrei, one should align his legs so that they are adjacent to one another, בְּאַלוּ אֵינָן אֶלָא אֶחָר in order that they give the appearance as if they are one. לְּהַבְּמוֹת לְהַמֵּלְאָבִים This is in emulation of the angels, שׁנָאֶמֵר as it is stated (Yechezkel 1:7): "יִרְנְלֵיהֶם רָגֶל יְשָׁרָה" and their legs were a straight leg; בְּלִוֹמֶר meaning, בְּלֵּל אֶחָר they positioned their legs so that they appeared to be one leg. [20]

Kitzur here speaks of the obligation to concentrate throughout the entire Shemoneh Esrei. Mishnah Berurah writes that a person should at least accustom himself to concentrate at the conclusion of each blessing (... ברוך אָתָה ה'). One who cannot clear his mind sufficiently to concentrate on the entire Prayer should, at a minimum, concentrate when reciting the first blessing, the blessing of Avos [Patriarchs] (Shulchan Aruch 101:1). [Some authorities hold that this minimum includes the blessing of Modim [We gratefully thank You] as well (Mishnah Berurah ibid. 3).] One who is in a state in which he cannot clear his mind enough to concentrate when reciting Avos, should not pray until he feels that he can (Mishnah Berurah ibid.).

- 17. This of course is a reference to the days of the Kitzur; nowadays, this is true for many other languages as well.
- 18. At the very least, one is required to know the meaning of the words of the blessings of Avos and Modim (ibid. 2).
- 19. When a person speaks to Hashem, he must divest himself of all physical concerns, thus emulating the angels who are removed from all things physical (Mishnah Berurah 95:2).
- 20. One's feet should touch at both the toes and the heels (Igros Moshe, Orach Chaim V, §38.5).

^{16.} In this verse, David HaMelech prays that Hashem direct the hearts of the humble in their Prayers, so that He heed their Prayers. It is thus apparent that a prayer recited with concentration is accepted by Hashem.

ויַכוף ראשו מעט למטָה, ויסגור עיניו שלא יסתבל בשום דבר, ואם מתפּלֵל בָּתוֹךְ סִידוֹר לֹא יַסִיר עִינַיו מוֹ הַפִּידוֹר, וְיַנִּיחַ יַדִיוֹ עַל לְבוֹ, יִמִינוֹ עַל שְׁמֹאלוֹ וְיִתְפַּלֵּל בְּלֵב שָׁלֵם, בְּאֵימָה וּבְיִרְאָה וּבְהַכְנָעָה, בְּעָנִי הָעוֹמֵד בַּפֶּתַח. וְיוֹצִיא אֶת הַמִּלוֹת מפּיו בְּכַנִונַה וֹבִדקדוֹק, וִיִתְפַּלֵל כָּל אָחַד בְּפִי הַנוֹסְחֵא שֵׁלוֹ, הֵן אַשְׁבְּנֵז הֵן סְפַּרֵד וברומה, כּוּלַם יְסוּדַתָם בַּהַרְרֵי קְדֶשׁ, אֲבַל אַל יְעַרֶב תִיבוֹת מְנוֹסְחֵא לְנוֹסְחַא, כִּי בל נוסחא תיבותיה מנויות וספירות על־פי סודות גדולות, ואין להוסיף או לגרוע. וֹ. יִזָּהֵר לְהַתְפַּלֵּל בְּלַחֲשׁ, רַק שָׁהוֹא בְּעַצְמוֹ יִשְׁמֵע מַה שֵׁהוֹא אוֹמֵר, וַחֲבֵרוֹ שָבַּסְמוּך לוֹ לֹא יִשְׁמֵע קוֹלוֹ, כִמוֹ שֻנְּאֲמֵר בְּחַנַה (שמואל־א א, יג): ׳׳רַק

יוֹצִיא אֵת הַמְּלוֹת מִפְּיו — He should express the words verbally, בְּבַוָּונָה וּבְדַקְדוּק — with concentration and precision. וִיִּתַפַּלֵל כָּל אָחָר בְּפִי הַנּוֹסְחָא שֶׁלו — Each person should pray following his own version of the text of the prayers, הן אשבנו הן ספרד וכדומה whether Nusach Ashkenaz or Nusach Sefard or the like, בולם יסורתם בהררי קדש for all of these established versions of the prayers have their foundations in the holy mountains, i.e., the sources of all these versions are lofty and holy. אבל אַל יִערב הַיבוֹת תנוסחא לנוסחא – However, one should not mix words from one version with that of another, בִּי כֵּל נוּסְחַא — for every version מִיבוֹתֵיהַ מִנוּיוֹת וֹסְפִירוֹת — has its words counted and numbered על־פּי סורות גְּדוֹלוֹת — according to great secrets of the Torah, ואָין לְהוֹסִיף אוֹ לְגְרוֹעַ — and, therefore, one should not add to or subtract from the set number and order of the words of that nusach. [24]

אַבּק לָּהַתְּפַּלֵּל בְּלַחֲשׁ One should take care to pray quietly ַ רָק שֶׁהוּא בְּעַצְמוֹ יִשְׁמֵע ביק שֶׁהוּא מה שהוא אומר — so that only he himself hears what he is saying, לו לא ישמע קולו — but his fellow standing next to him should not hear his voice. [25] במו This is derived from that which is stated with regard to the prayer of

^{21.} Before one begins to pray, or if he finds his concentration disturbed in the middle of his prayers, he should lift his eyes to the heavens to arouse his concentration (see Mishnah Berurah 90:8, 95:4).

^{22.} This posture is required in those places where people in fact stand in this position when addressing a king and requesting their needs; people in other places should stand as they would when having an audience with their king (Mishnah Berurah 95:6).

^{23.} I.e., he should speak in an unhurried manner, as one who is begging for mercy. He should bear in mind when praying that there is no power or force in the world that is able to fulfill his request if it is not Hashem's will (see Mishnah Berurah 98:8).

^{24.} See Mishnah Berurah 68:4 who explains that there are numerous gates in Heaven (through which the prayers ascend), with one designated for each of the traditional versions of the prayers.

^{25.} One who prays loudly displays a lack of conviction that Hashem could hear him

אַפּיל שָּוֹם דָבֶּר When praying Shemoneh Esrei, a person should not support himself on anything; אָפִּילוּ סְמִיכָה בָּל דְּהוּ — this includes leaning in such a fashion in which he receives only a slight support. רְאָם הוּא חוֹלֶה — If he is slightly ill בְּעָר הוֹשֶׁב אוֹ שוֹכֵב — he may pray Shemoneh Esrei even while sitting or lying down, וְאָם הַּיָּבוֹל לְבַנִּיון דַּעְתוֹּ — but only if he can concentrate. וְאָם אַיִּבְּשָׁר לוֹ לְהַתְּפַּלֵל בְּפִיוּ יְהַרְהַר בְּלבוּ — he should nevertheless think the words of the Prayer in his heart.

אָשְרֵה שְּמוֹנֶה־עֶשְׁרֵה One should not hold anything in his hand during the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer לא יאחו בְּיָרוֹ בְּשְׁעֵת תְּפַלַת שְמוֹנֶה־עֶשְׁרֵה One should not hold anything in his hand during the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer ול בְּמִּרְוֹר אָם צָרִיךְ לוֹ בְּמִידּוֹר When necessary, a person should mark, before the prayers, אָת הַמְּקוֹמוֹת שֶׁהוֹא צָרִיךְ לְהִתְּפַלֵל בַּסִידּוֹר those places in the Siddur or Machzor from which he must pray on that even if he would pray quietly. However, one who is praying alone may raise his voice if he cannot concentrate on his prayers otherwise. When praying with others, however, he must make sure not to disturb their prayers (see Shulchan Aruch 101:2; Mishnah Berurah ibid. 6,8). With regard to the prayers of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, see below, 129:2.

26. While she was barren, Chanah (who would ultimately be the mother of the prophet Shmuel) visited the Mishkan at Shiloh and poured her heart out in prayer. The verses of her prayer are expounded by the Sages to teach many important halachos of the proper form for all prayers; see Berachos 31a,b.

27. Any leaning at all detracts from the awe with which a person must comport himself when praying Shemoneh Esrei (see Mishnah Berurah 94:22). However, Mishnah Berurah there does write that, in cases of pressing need, one may lean slightly on an object as long as he is not completely supported by it (i.e., if the object would be removed he would still remain standing).

28. When traveling on an airplane, if it is difficult to stand and one will be disturbed if he does so, it is better to pray Shemoneh Esrei while seated, standing only to bow in the required places [see se'if 11] (Igros Moshe, Orach Chaim IV, §20).

29. On his side (see Shulchan Aruch 94:6). One who can, should at least stand at the four points in the Shemoneh Esrei where one is required to bow (see below, se'if 11) (Mishnah Berurah 94:20).

30. The attention necessary to ensure that the items do not fall can detract from the required concentration on his prayers (Shulchan Aruch 96:1; see Mishnah Berurah ibid. 5). This halachah applies to the recitation of the Shema and Pesukei D'Zimrah as well (Mishnah Berurah ibid. 1).

31. A special prayer book for Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, or festivals.

§9 לא יְבָהֵק וְלֹא יְפַהֵק — A person should not burp[41] nor yawn while reciting Shemoneh Esrei.

(Kitzur now explains the unfamiliar Hebrew terms of "גִּיהוֹק" and "גִּיהוֹק":

עבר הַ שְּלְּפְעָמִים אֶדָם מוֹצִיא מִגוֹפוֹ לְפִיוּ — The term "gihuk" refers to a burp, גְּיהוֹק הְמִיְם שׁוֹבְעוֹ בְּעוֹים אֶדָם מוֹצִיא מִגוֹפוֹ לְפִיוּ — where a person occasionally expels from his body to his mouth בְּרַיחַ הַמֵּאֲבָל שֻאָבַל — which has sudden strong exhalation, from a feeling of satiety, בְּיִים הַמַּאֲבָל שֻאָבַל — which has the odor of the food that he has eaten. יְנֵשׁ אוֹמְרִים דְּהַיִּינוּ — Some offer a different explanation and say that it refers to a stretch, בְּבִייִנוּ מֵחְמֵת בּוֹבֶּי — where a person stretches out his body and arms due to a feeling of heaviness of limbs. וּפִיהוֹן — The term "pihuk" refers to a yawn, שְׁפּוֹתַח מֵלְקוֹחָיוֹ — where a person opens his jaws wide הַ בְּעָרֶם שֶׁרוֹצֶה לִישׁן, אוֹ שֻׁעָמֵר מִשֵּינָה — where a person opens his jaws wide בְּעָרֶם לְּבָרְ מִחֲמֵת אוֹנְסוֹ — in the manner of one who feels the need to sleep, or one who just woke up from a sleep.) בְּנִיחָ נִדְיוֹ עֵל בְּיִר עֵל בְּיִר עֵל בְּיִר עֵל בְּיִם עַרְר לְבָךְ מֵחֲמֵת אוֹנְסוֹ — he should put his hand on his mouth שֵׁלֹא יִתְרָאָה בְּתִיחָתוֹ — so that the opening of his mouth not be seen.

ן אָם בָּא לו — It is also forbidden for one to spit during Shemoneh Esrei. וְאָם בָּא לו — If phlegm comes into his mouth, וּמְנְּטָרֶר מִּתְּפַּלְתוּ — If phlegm comes into his mouth, רוֹק לְתוֹךְ פִּיוּ — and it causes him distress to the point that his concentration on his Prayer is disturbed, and it causes him distress to the point that his concentration on his Prayer is disturbed, שוֹבְּעָּת בּוֹרְ מִטְפַּחַת אוֹ בֶּעֶּר — he should expel it into a handkerchief or cloth, so that it is not visible. אוֹבְ מִאוֹט לוֹ וְיִרוֹק — If this causes him revulsion, יַּאָחוּרָיוּ — he should lean to his left and spit behind himself. בְּאַחוּרָיוּ — he cannot spit behind himself, יַרוֹק לִשְׁמֹאלוּ — he may spit to his left; אוֹב " — he may spit to his right. (44) — אַר־אָפִּשֶּׁר לִשְׁמֹאלוּ — he may spit to his right.

^{42.} See Shulchan Aruch 97:2.

^{43.} See above, 3:4, which states that the right side of a person is given preference and respect. Here too, one should seek not to spit on the right side.

^{44.} However, if that too is not possible and it is causing him distress, he may even spit in front of him (Mishnah Berurah 97:8).

^{45.} That is, he may grasp the louse through his garment and remove it from his body.

^{46.} See above, 2:9, which states that one who touches a louse must wash his hands.

^{47.} I.e., none of it was on his body. Even if he was still holding it in his hands, it is considered to be completely off his body (Mishnah Berurah 97:14).

^{48.} See above, 9:10. Mishnah Berurah writes (97:16) that if standing without his tallis will cause him to lose his concentration on his Prayer, he may put it back on between blessings.

^{49.} See below, se'if 12.

^{50.} King Shlomo, in the prayer he recited at the inauguration of the Temple, refers in various ways as to how prayers should be offered toward the Temple. Each of these ways is explained in the Gemara (Berachos 30a) to refer to a different situation. The verse cited here is understood to refer to those who are praying from outside the Land of Israel.

קָרְשִׁי־קָּרָשִים. וְלָכֵן אָנוּ בִּמְדִינָתִינוּ שֶׁיוֹשְׁבִים בְּמַצְרָבָה שֶׁל אֶרֶץ־יִשְׂרָאֵל, צְרִיכִין לֵעֲמוֹד בַּפָּנִים לְצֵד מִוְרָח (לֹא לַמִּוְרָח מַמָּשׁ אֶלָּא לְצֵד קֶרֶן מִוְרָחִית דְּרוֹמִית. עַיֵּין ט׳׳ז וּמָגון אַבְרָהָם בְּשֵׁם הַלְּבוּשׁ), וְהַיּוֹשְׁבִים בַּצָפוֹן שֶׁל אֶרֶץ־יִשְׁרָאֵל, פְּנִיהֶם לַדָּרוֹם, וְהַיּוֹשְׁבִים בַּצָפוֹן שֶׁל אֶרֶץ־יִשְׁרָאַל, פְּנִיהֶם לַנִּיקֹם לְמַקוֹם אָחָר, וְהַיּוֹשְׁבִים בַּדְרוֹם פְּנֵיהֶם לַצְפוֹן. נִמְצָא כָּל יִשְׂרָאֵל פְּנִיהָם בְּצָפוֹן בִּיְרָח פְּנִיהֶם לְמָקוֹם אָחָר, דְהַיִּינוּ נָגֶר יְרוּשָׁלַיִם וּבִית קָּרְשִׁים, שֶשָׁם שַׁעַר הַשְּׁמִים, שֶׁבָּל הַתְּפְלוֹת עוֹלוֹת דֶּרֶךְ שָׁם. וְלָבֵן נִקְרָא בִּית־הַמִּקְרָשׁ תַּלְפִיוֹת, בְּעִר הַשְּבִּרוֹב (שִיר השירים ד, ד): ׳׳בְּמִגְּדֵל דְּוִיד צַנָּאבֵרְ בְּנִוּי לְתַלְפִּיוֹת׳׳, תֵּל שֶׁבָּל, בְּמַקוֹם שֵאָינוֹ יַבוֹל לְכַנִין לָצֵד שַׁבְּנֵגִּד אָרָץ־יִשְׂרָאָל,

וְאָם מִתְפַּלֵּל בִּמָקוֹם — If one is praying in a place אַרֵץ־יִשֹּרָאֵל — שָׁאִינוֹ יָכוֹל לְכַנֵּין לַצַד שֵׁבְנֵגֵד אֵרֵץ־יִשֹּׁרָאֵל —

Israel, for the prayers, they will be facing the Ark as well (Mishnah Berurah 94:9).

^{51.} I.e., he should physically face the Land of Israel, and then imagine that he is standing in the Holy Temple in Yerushalayim, in the place of the Holy of Holies (Mishnah Berurah 94:3). One who is praying in the Land of Israel should turn to face Yerushalayim and direct his heart toward the Holy Temple and the chamber of the Holy of Holies; one who is praying in Yerushalayim should face the place of the Holy Temple and direct his heart to the chamber of the Holy of Holies (Shulchan Aruch 94:1).

^{52.} The Kitzur was written in Hungary, in Central Europe.

^{53.} Because of this halachah, synagogues to the west of Israel are constructed with the Ark on the eastern wall. In this way, when the congregation faces east, toward the Land of ^{54.} This Levush is also cited at length in Beur Halachah to 94:2 אין עושין. The Levush points out that Europe is northwest of the Land of Israel. Therefore, were the synagogues to face due east, they would not be facing the Land of Israel. In addition, praying in that direction could give the impression that they were worshiping the sun, which rises in the east. Therefore in those lands the synagogues should face southeast.

^{55.} The "neck" of the Jewish people refers to the Holy Temple: Just as the neck rests atop the body, so is the Temple the "height" and the glory of the Jewish people (Maharsha to Berachos 30a).

^{56.} In this verse, King Shlomo does not specify a specific direction to pray, but simply that his prayers should be "to HASHEM." Thus, the Gemara (Berachos 30a) explains that this refers to one who is blind or is unable to determine the directions, who should rather direct his heart toward his Father in Heaven.

The exact procedure of taking these steps is as follows: יְאַחַר־כָּךְ בְּרֶגֶל הְחָלָה בְּרֶגֶל שְׁמֹאל
— He takes the first step back with his left foot, יְאַחַר־כָּךְ בְּרֶגֶל שְׁמֹאל

^{60.} See, however, Mishnah Berurah 113:12, who says that when saying the word Modim, he should bow without bending his knees, and remain in that position until the word "Hashem."

^{61.} One may, however, assume a bowed position when reciting the middle of the blessings (Shulchan Aruch 113:1).

^{62.} This second step is a longer step than the previous one, since he must pass the entire length of the left foot so that his right toe is right behind his left heel (see Mishnah Berurah 123:13; see also Igros Moshe, Orach Chaim IV, §122.2).

Now respond: Amen.

If he is standing behind the Kohanim on the eastern wall, he is required to move to stand in front of them even in the middle of his Shemoneh Esrei, as this is a halachic requirement, and hence not considered an interruption (Igros Moshe, Orach Chaim V, §20.23).

^{79.} According to Mishnah Berurah (103:4), he may only step backwards and not to his sides. This is so he will still be facing the place where he was praying, thus indicating his desire to return to his Prayer.

^{80.} If he is wearing tefillin, he must move them out of place so that he will not be considered to be wearing them, as it is forbidden to pass gas while wearing tefillin (Mishnah Berurah 103:3).

^{81. [}The purpose of this prayer is to beg forgiveness for having inadvertently committed this act during Prayer. One therefore acknowledges the human frailty that did not allow him to restrain himself (see Rabbeinu Yonah; Ritva to Berachos 24b).]

^{82.} He does not say the Ribon HaOlamim prayer since he did not move away from the place in which he was praying, so his "shame and humiliation" are not apparent. However, he should think the words of the Ribon HaOlamim prayer before continuing his Shemoneh Esrei Prayer (see Mishnah Berurah 103:2,9).

^{83.} Or even to support himself by leaning on an object (see Mishnah Berurah 102:1).

^{84.} When one sits adjacent to one who is praying Shemoneh Esrei and he is not also engaged in prayer, it appears as if the person sitting does not wish to join in accepting upon himself the authority of Hashem (Mishnah Berurah 102:6).

^{85.} I.e., even if he is not engaged in actual prayer, as long as it is somewhat connected to the prayer services, he may sit there. An example of this is the chapter of Mishnah recited before Pesukei D'Zimrah (אַיוָהוּ מְּקוֹמָן) (Shulchan Aruch 102:1), or the chapters of Tractate Avos recited with the Shabbos Minchah services (Mishnah Berurah ibid. 5).

^{86.} According to these authorities, as long as one is visibly studying Torah (not merely thinking Torah thoughts) it does not appear as if he is declining to accept upon himself the authority of Hashem (Mishnah Berurah ibid. 6,7). Mishnah Berurah (ibid. 6) writes that when possible, one should not rely on these authorities to sit in front of or beside one who is praying.

^{87.} Even though, when one is actively accepting upon himself the authority of Hashem with his recitation of Shema, the above reason (see note 84) does not apply, there is another reason to refrain from sitting in front of one who is reciting Shemoneh Esrei: When one sits in this position, it appears that the person praying and bowing behind him is bowing to him (Mishnah Berurah ibid. 8).

^{88.} Since when he is standing, it does not look like he is being bowed to (Mishnah Berurah ibid.). 89. Even in a manner proscribed in the previous se'if.

^{90.} There are opinions that permit a weak person to sit, since it is readily apparent that he is sitting only due to his weakness [and therefore he does not appear to be declining to accept upon himself the authority of Hashem (see Shulchan Aruch 102:2 and Mishnah Berurah ibid. 10,11).

בב. שִׁבּוֹר, אָם אֵינוֹ יָכוֹל לְדַבֵּר לִפְנֵי אָדָם נָדוֹל וְנִכְבָּד, אָסוּר לוֹ לְהִתְפַּלֵּל.

praying Shemoneh Esrei came into his domain. אֲבֶל עָמֵד לְהַתְּפֵּלֵל לְאַחֲרָיוּ — However, if the one praying came and stood behind him שָּנְמְצָא הַיּוֹשֵב לְפָנָיוּ — so that now it emerges that he is sitting in front of the one who is praying, יַש לוֹ לִיזָהֵר — it is proper for him to be scrupulous and to stand.

יְבֶל זֶה — All of these halachos, with regard to coming into the domain of another to pray, אֶבָל אִם מִתְפַּלֵל בְּבֵית הַמְיוֹחָד — apply only when praying in one's house. לְמִנְּין קְבוּע — however, when praying in a house which is designated for a regular minyan, ומְבָּל־יאָחָד — and certainly in the synagogue, וּמְבִּל שָׁם — which is designated for every person to come and pray, אֲפִילוּ יָשַׁב הוֹא — which is designated for every person to come and pray, אְפִילוּ יָשַׁב הוֹא — in these cases, even if one sat down first and then another began to pray next to him, צְּרִיךְ לַעֲמוֹד — the person who sat down must stand בִּיִן שֻׁבִּמְּוֹם מִיוּחָד לִתְּפַלָּה — since the place is designated for the prayers of each person, and it is therefore not considered the domain of any one person.

$21 אָסוּר לַעְבוֹר בְּתוֹךְ אַרְבַּע אַמוֹת — It is forbidden to pass within four amos לְפְנֵי הַמּתְפַּלֵל הְפָּלַת שְׁמוֹנֶה־עֶשְׁרַה — in front of one who is reciting the Shemoneh Esrei Prayer. הְּמָבֶל הְּפָלֵל הְנָמֵר הְפָּלָתוֹ — Therefore, וְאָבֶר הְתְּפַּלֵל וְנָמֵר הְתְּפַּלֵל וְנָמֵר הְפָּלָתוֹ — Therefore, וּאַבֶּר הַתְּפַּלֵל וְנָמֵר הִתְּפַּלֵל וְנָמֵר הְפָּלָתוֹ — and there is another Esrei and then finished his Prayer, וְמָהְרַיוֹ וֹמְתְפַּלֵל הַמְּחָר שִׁה הוֹשְּלְפָּנִיו אָת הַפְּסִיעוֹת — who did not yet finish his Shemoneh Esrei, אַל יַפְּסִיע וֶה שֶּלְפָנִיו אֶת הַפְּסִיעוֹת — the person praying in front should not take the three steps back אַל יַפְּסִיע וֶה הַמְּבֶּל — because by doing so, it emerges that he is passing before the one who is praying. הַאַּדְרִין — However, passing beside one who is praying, הַמְּבָּל הַל שֶׁבֵּן לְאַחֲרָיוּ — is permitted.

§22 שְׁבּוֹר – A person who is drunk, אָם אֵינוֹ יָכוֹל לְדָבֵּר – if he is in such a state that he cannot speak in a dignified manner לְבְּנֵי אָדָם נָּדוֹל וְנְכָבָּד – before a great and respected person, אָסוּר לוֹ לְהַתַּבֵּל – he is prohibited from praying Shemoneh Esrei.

^{91.} Nevertheless, it is a מְדֶת הַסְידוּת (practice of the pious) to stand even in this case (Rama 102:3).

^{92.} This is forbidden because it disturbs the concentration of the one who is praying. Chayei Adam explains that it is forbidden because passing in front of a person who is praying separates between the one praying and the Divine Presence that he is facing (Mishnah Berurah 102:15.).

^{93.} This is forbidden even if the one who is still praying began Shemoneh Esrei after the one in front (Shulchan Aruch 102:5).

וְאִם עָבַר וְהַתְפַּלֵּל, תְּפָלָתוֹ תּוֹעֵבָה, וְצָרִיךְ לַחֲזוֹר וּלְהִתְפַּלֵּל בְּשֶׁיָסוּר יֵינוֹ מֵעֶלָיו. וְאִם עָבַר זְמֵן תְּפָלָה, מֵשְׁלִים אוֹתָה בַּתְּפָלָה שֶׁלְאַחֲרֶיהָ בְּדִין שוֹגֵג וְאוֹנֶס לְקַמָּן סִימָן בא. (דִין תִּפְלָּה בָּאִישָׁה נִדָּה עַיֵּין לִקַמֵּן סוֹף סִימֵן קי׳׳ג.)

רְּמִבֶּלֵל הְּהַתְּפֵּלֵל — If he violated this halachah and prayed anyway, וְּאָם עָבֵר וְהָתְפֵּלֵל — his Prayer is considered an abomination, וְאָרִיךְּ לַּחֲזוֹר וּלְהָתְפֵּלֵל — and he must pray again — נְצָרִיךְ לַחֲזוֹר וּלְהָתְפֵּלֵל — when the effects of the wine leave him. בְּשֶּׁיְסוּר יֵינוֹ מֵעְלָיוֹ — If the time for the Prayer passed before he is able to pray, מַשְׁלִים אוֹתָה בַּתְפָּלָה — he can make up the Prayer that he missed at the time of the following Prayer following the halachah regarding one who inadvertently or unavoidably missed a Prayer, וּשִׁרְ בָּא הַ בְּהִין שִׁרְגָּ וְאוֹנֶס — Regarding the law of praying for a woman who is a niddah, בְּיִין בְּיִלְ מַנִין לְקְמֵּן טִוּף — see below, end of Siman 113, se'if 16.)

^{94.} Providing that he did not begin to drink to excess close to the end of the time of that prayer
